Church Covenant

We, the members of this church, through the grace of God, humbly and solemnly undertake with His aid:

- To attend the worship and services of this church regularly, using them for the edification of our souls.
- To contribute cheerfully and regularly to the financial support of the work of this church and its various beneficences.
- To aid and assist prayerfully, loyally, and willingly, the minister and those who work with him in the witness of this church.
- To maintain, in all our relations with our fellow members, an attitude of spiritual integrity, sympathy, and love.
- To cooperate with interest and earnestness in the redemptive, missionary, and social tasks of the Kingdom of God.
- To cultivate by prayer and meditation a life of devotion and consecration to God and to our Savior, Jesus Christ.
- To aspire, in our private laws, to character and conduct that shall be approved by God and our consciences.
- To order the life in our homes so that they may be truly Christian and dwelling places of God.
- To bear ourselves in our social and business interrelationships in accordance with the principles of Jesus Christ.
- We enter this covenant inspired by devoted love to Him who gave Himself for our salvation. We seek that communion of our spirits with His, so graciously bestowed on us. We desire to serve Him and those who are in the work of His hand. We pray for Divine guidance and help in this, our earnest endeavor.
- We further engage that when we remove from this place, we will, as soon as possible, unite with some other Church where we can carry out the spirit of this Covenant and the principles of God's word.
